

Program Evaluation

Program Title: "Update on North American Snakebites"

Program Presenter: Ronald Kirschner, M.D.

Date: July 9, 2010

Program Objectives:

1. Identify snakes involved and how common is envenomation
2. Discuss clinical effects of North American snakebites
3. Discuss indications for antivenom and how common is serious ADR
4. Discuss when surgical treatment is needed

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
1. The content was evidenced-based	5	4	3	2	1
2. The content was fair and balanced	5	4	3	2	1
3. My understanding of key matters was enhanced.	5	4	3	2	1
4. The presenter was knowledgeable about the subject matter.	5	4	3	2	1
5. The presentation met the stated objectives.	5	4	3	2	1
6. The audio-visual aids well prepared?	5	4	3	2	1
7. The program was free of commercial bias	5	4	3	2	1
8. Information will improve my ability to treat and manage my patients.	5	4	3	2	1
9. Disclosures of potential conflicts of interest were communicated.	5	4	3	2	1
10. Disclosure occurred when off-label or unapproved uses of drugs or medical devices were discussed.	5	4	3	2	1
11. The material presented relevant to my practice	5	4	3	2	1
12. Based on information you received from this activity, list 1 application that you will make to your clinical practice.

13. List topics or speakers you would find interesting and/or relevant for future CME programs:

14. Overall, how would you rate this program? ___Excellent ___Good ___Average ___Poor

15. Other comments or suggestions:

THANK YOU FOR ATTENDING